

Student Name _____

Student ID _____

Certification of an AGECE will guarantee your unconditional admission to an Arizona public university of your choice, as well as completion of lower division general education requirements. Additional preparatory courses may be required for your major. Contact your academic advisor or counselor to document your AGECE status on your transcript.

General Education	Credit Hours	Complete	In Progress	Still Needed	Comments
Foundation Studies (9)
College Composition: ENG 101 and 102 or ENG 103 and 104	6
Numeracy: MAT 142, MAT 152 or any course for which MAT 152 is a prerequisite.	3
Core Studies (6)
Historical Perspective: See General Education Course List	3
Critical Thinking: See General Education Course List	3
Area Studies (20)
Physical and Biological Sciences: See General Education Course List	8
Arts and Humanities: See General Education Course List	6
Social and Behavioral Science: See General Education Course List	6
Special AGECE Requirements: There are special requirements for the Arizona General Education Curriculum certification. Students must complete courses from specific emphasis areas. Refer to the General Education Course List for courses that meet these requirements. Students should work with an Academic Advisor to ensure requirements are met.
Intensive Writing (IWR): See General Education Course List
Ethnic/Race/Gender (ERG): See General Education Course List
Global/International or Historical (GIH): Embedded in Historical Perspective
NOTE: To certify an AGECE, a minimum of 12 semester hours of general education course work must be completed in residence at Yavapai College. Each course must be completed with a grade of "C" or better.
Minimum Credits for Completion of AGECE-A	35

Academic Advisor Signature: _____

Date: _____