

Student Name _____

Student ID _____

The Microsoft Certified Systems Administrator certificate is designed to prepare students to manage and support a Microsoft Windows networking environment. The program prepares students to take exams related to the Microsoft Certified Systems Administrator certification.

| Requirements                                     | Credit Hours | Complete | In Progress | Still Needed | Comments |
|---|---------------------|-----------------|--------------------|---------------------|-----------------|
| CNT 110 A+ Computer Technician Certification            | 4                   |                 |                    |                     |                 |
| CNT 115 Network+: Networking Technologies Certification | 4                   |                 |                    |                     |                 |
| CNT 120 Exploring Network Operating Environments        | 3                   |                 |                    |                     |                 |
| CNT 121 Windows Client Operating System                 | 3                   |                 |                    |                     |                 |
| CNT 122 Windows Server I                                | 4                   |                 |                    |                     |                 |
| CNT 123 Windows Server II                               | 3                   |                 |                    |                     |                 |
| CNT 189 Computer Networking Topics                      | 2                   |                 |                    |                     |                 |
| CNT 296 Internship: Computer Networking Technology      | 3                   |                 |                    |                     |                 |
| Total Minimum Credit Hours                       | 26           |                 |                    |                     |                 |

Academic Advisor Signature: _____ Date: _____