Organ Maestro Hector Olivera in Prescott Virtuoso Performance slated at YC Performance Hall October 10

PRESCOTT, Ariz. – One of the finest organists in the world today, Hector Olivera, will take the Performance Hall stage Saturday, October 10 at 7:30 p.m. The show is presented by Yavapai College Community Events and Clarence Kropp, and co-sponsored by Ken Hinderleiter, and the Performing Arts Charitable Endowment (PACE).

Olivera is a passionate, gifted, and unique musician, whose personal interpretations of both classical and popular music have amazed and delighted audiences around the world. He has performed as guest soloist with many orchestras, including the Pittsburgh Symphony, the Fort Wayne Symphony, the Dover-New Philadelphia Orchestra, the Dallas Symphony, the Cleveland Orchestra, the Amsterdam Baroque Ensemble, the Minnesota Orchestra, and the Pasadena Symphony (for whom he produced a limited Gold CD edition of Saint Saëns' Symphony No. 3).

Although he is most famous for his prodigious technical proficiency, Hector Olivera's amazing effect on audiences stems from his ability to connect with fans of all types of music and of all ages. The Washington Post noted that Olivera "... Entertained his audience with a dazzling display of sonic and technical marvels... Olivera is an engaging performer that clearly has found his particular niche and fills it splendidly."

Olivera will perform on a Roland Atelier AT-900 shipped to Prescott for this performance.

Tickets for this show are $35/$33. Purchase tickets online at www.tickets.com (search for "Yavapai College").
