FOUNDATION GENERAL BUSINESS

Funding from the LaBarbara Estate provided travel funding for four instructors to attend a professional development workshop August 3rd and 4th. Based on shared inquiry, a proven method of learning through structured discussions, this professional development workshop will improve instructors' skills, which then leads to improved student achievement. Funds from the LaBarbara Estate are designated for the specialized study of and instruction in Aristotelian Logic, more commonly referred to as critical thinking.

The Foundation Board of Directors will meet on Monday, September 20, 2004, at noon.

FRIENDS of Yavapai College Art

Friday, September 17th, from 5:30 – 7:30 p.m. is the opening reception of Camera Work: A Centennial Celebration. This photograph exhibit celebrates the centennial of the founding of Alfred Stieglitz's seminal journal, Camera Work. Yavapai College Art Gallery is the only venue west of the Rockies to exhibit this important work. The exhibit was organized by the James A. Michener Art Museum, Doylestown, Pennsylvania. The exhibit will be on display through October 15.

Roughrider Club

The annual membership drive is underway for the Roughrider Club. A variety of membership options are available, including: Corporate membership at $400; Family membership for $100; Individual membership for $45; or, Student/YC Employee for $25. The mission of the Roughrider Club is to provide support to the Yavapai College intercollegiate athletics program through fundraising and promotional activities. During the 2003-2004 academic year, the Roughrider Club directly contributed to the success of the athletic program by:

- Scholarship assistance for two student athletic trainers to expand their educational experience.
- Funding $32,000 in out-of-state travel expenses for student athletes.
- Purchasing National Championship rings for players and coaches of our 2003-2004 National Champion Soccer and Cross Country teams.

Sunderman Foundation
