The Benefits of Learning in Later Life

Learning doesn't have an expiration date, and in fact, continuing to engage with new knowledge and skills in later life offers numerous benefits—mentally, socially, and emotionally. Whether it's picking up a new language, discussing current affairs, or learning a musical instrument, these activities stimulate the brain, encouraging neuroplasticity and promoting overall mental sharpness.

Beyond cognitive health, learning in later life can provide meaningful social engagement. OLLI Members find joy participating and producing in-person and online classes, and leading and participating in special interest groups. OLLI creates opportunities to connect with people of different ages and backgrounds, fostering friendships and shared goals, which contribute to emotional well-being and a greater sense of belonging.

Moreover, embracing learning later in life often reignites a sense of purpose and curiosity. It's a powerful reminder that personal growth doesn't end at retirement. Whether it's pursuing long-held passions, acquiring practical skills, or simply exploring new ideas, OLLI has a wide range of offerings for every interest!

Julie Rogers is one of the sixteen grandchildren of western film and television stars, Roy Rogers and Dale Evans. Julie shares heartwarming memories of her grandparents, describing them as humble and charismatic individuals who treated everyone equally, regardless of fame. Growing up during their peak popularity in the 50s and 60s, the author did not realize their grandparents were famous, viewing them simply as Grandma and Grandpa. They were ordinary people who lived extraordinary lives.

ARTS & CRAFTS

6) Creative Drawing

Thurs, 6/26-7/24 • 1pm-2:30pm • $35

4 Meetings • Verde Campus - Bldg. G-104 • OV-106-SU25

Facilitator: Rae Ebeling

You say “But I can’t draw”. If you can hold a pencil you can create all sorts of images, real or imaginary, figurative or abstract. You’ll also discover more about how you see things and just enjoy a relaxing, playful, meditative activity. Bring pencils, colored pencils or pens (no paints), and notebook or printer paper (supplies will not be provided by facilitator). Note: Please note this class will skip July 3 and resume on July 10.

ARTS-VISUAL & PERFORMING

9) Beyond the Frame: American History via Art at Smithsonian American Art Museum (SAAM)

Wed, 6/11-7/2 • 9am-10:30am • $35

4 Meetings • Online • OZP-109-SU25

Facilitator: Rebecca Fulcher

Artists give us a window on American life, often reflecting the cultural and social climate of the time in which they work. Explore the question, “What does art reveal about America?” as you join Smithsonian American Art Museum study group leaders to examine American history through the eyes of a variety of artists in four discussion-based sessions, each focused on a separate era: Seeing Is Thinking; Early America; 1861-1941: 80 Years of Change; and Contemporary Life. Note: this will meet 7/2.

11) Celebrating Cellist Yo-Yo Ma

Email Only • OZP-111-SU25 • $15

Facilitator: Nancy Dubow

Beloved cellist Yo-Yo Ma has brought great joy to many, many people over a long career! Our celebration honors his unique, radiant spirit and amazing cello wizardry through performances and videos about him. At the heart of our festival is a marvelous performance of Dvorak’s treasured Cello Concerto. In addition, we are focusing on his love of the Bach Suites for solo cello and how he has grown and evolved in his concept of them over his lifetime.

12) Music Sanctuary with Ola Gjeilo

Email Only • OZP-112-SU25 • $15

Facilitator: Nancy Dubow

The music of Ola Gjeilo is an uplifting sanctuary of sound that allows us to experience peace, and be strengthened and renewed. His main areas of composition are choral and piano.

13) Sculpted Stories: Narrative Elements in Sculpture

Mon, 6/23-7/28 • 10am-11:30am • $35

4 Meetings • Sedona Center-28 • OS-113-SU25

Facilitator: Danielle Gervasio

This class explores how sculptors create narrative through form. Over four class meetings we will review diverse statues, reliefs, and public monuments to identify and discuss how elements such as gesture, space, composition, and an artwork’s setting create visual narrative in sculpture. Using visual analysis, participants will learn to “read” sculptures as dynamic stories frozen in time. Note: Please note this 4 week class skips June 30 and July 7.

14) Spanish Impressionism - Joaquin Sorolla

Tues, 6/24-7/22 • 10am-11:30am • $35

4 Meetings • Sedona Center-40 • OS-114-SU25

Facilitator: Art Smith

The painting style of impressionism developed in France in the late 19th century. A somewhat similar style was developed in Spain at the hands of the Valencian painter Joaquin Sorolla. Previously little known outside of Spain, Sorolla is becoming a major figure in European art due in part to a series of expositions in 2023 marking the 100th anniversary of his death. We will discuss the life and art of Sorolla, visit the Sorolla museum in Madrid, and attend the 2023 exposition in Madrid which included a spectacular animated virtual reality display of his major works. Note: Please note class will skip July 1 and resume on July 8.

In person registration is available at the Prescott Campus (M-F) and the Sedona Center (M-Th)

Prescott Campus 1100 E Sheldon St, Prescott
Sedona Center 4215 Arts Village Dr, Sedona

COMPUTER & TECHNOLOGY

18) All About Genealogy

Wed, 6/18 • 12:30pm-2pm • $15

1 Meeting • Online • OZP-118-SU25

Facilitators: JB Burke, Sue Mueller

Designed for both beginners who are ready to explore their family history or those who have started the journey, this session will focus on the process. Focus on your own family, gather records and pictures, and interview family. Software? Online tree? How to avoid mistakes. The session will introduce a variety of free online sources for your research. Plus a word about DNA and social media.

19) Get Smarter about Internet Passwords

Wed, 6/25-7/16 • 10am-11:30am • $35

3 Meetings • Sedona Center-28 • OS-119-SU25

Facilitator: Sharon Sherman

End confusion in logging into our Internet accounts. Discover the world of password security and authentication. Understand password creation, encryption, 2-factor authentication, passwordless login options, access upon death, and more. Review and compare the top password manager products, including their benefits and security features. Set up a password minder from scratch. Stop risking financial theft, malware, fraud, identity theft, and lost passwords. Save time and be safer. Note: Please note this class will skip July 2nd and resume on July 9th.

20) Computer Buying Guide

Thurs, 6/26 • 12:30pm-2:30pm • $15

1 Meeting • Online • OZP-120-SU25

Facilitators: JB Burke, Rob Truman

Getting ready to invest in a new computer? Totally confused about all of the terminology and specifications. Rob will provide some basics when it comes to picking your next machine. If you are looking for a pre-purchase buying guide, then this presentation is for you.

21) Zoom 101 - Get Comfortable with Video Conferencing

Thurs, 6/26 • 1pm-4pm • $15

1 Meeting • Verde Campus - Bldg. I-138 • OV-121-SU25

Facilitator: Sharon Sherman

Perhaps you are finally ready to video conference, or you would like to become more familiar with the basics of using Zoom, the most popular free video conferencing tool. Zoom allows you more options in learning and life. It lets you stay connected to others, anywhere in the world. In this class you will learn essential features, such as operations, and tips using a cell phone, tablet, or computer. This is a hands-on training, please bring your own device. Come Zoom with us in this very basic class!

D) Zoom 201 - Instructor Assistant for Zoom Class

Tues, 7/22 • 1pm-4pm • Free

1 Meeting • Online • OZS-404-SU25

Facilitator: Sharon Sherman

If you are a more experienced participant, let's dig deeper into features such as managing participants, chat, reactions, audio and video nuances, sharing, and controls. 22) Heads Up: Windows 10 Support Ends October 14

Tues, 7/1 • 12:30pm-2:30pm • $15

1 Meeting • Online • OZP-122-SU25

Facilitator: JB Burke

Microsoft's free Security support for Windows 10 ends on October 14, 2025. After that, Windows 10 will be less secure, at a time when online crime is on an upward trend. According to the FBI, Cybercrime losses exceeded $12.5 Billion in 2023. While a lot of the responsibility for that falls on the end user, the security of your computer OS is a key factor in assuring online safety. There are multiple ways to reduce or avoid this risk, and those will be explored in depth during this program.

23) Touring the Web #12

Thurs, 7/10 • 12:30pm-2:30pm • $15

1 Meeting • Online • OZP-123-SU25

Facilitator: JB Burke

The World Wide Web has everything – and JB has discovered much of it. Join JB Burke for an all new Touring the Web #12. You'll learn: how to visit the Sistine Chapel without traveling; how to use Picture in Picture in your browser; why email is such a great way to communicate; when kids in France drank wine in school; how internet traffic travels the world – it mostly isn't via satellites; all about the origin of the QWERTY keyboard; and, of course, robots! Plus, videos and much, much more.

FINANCE, ECONOMICS, & LAW

30) Mindset Matters in Well-Being: 3-Meetings

Tues, 7/8-7/22 • 1pm-2:30pm • $35

3 Meetings • Sedona Center-34 • OS-130-SU25

Facilitators: Donna Forsyth, Isabelle Griffith

This 3-meeting course expands on mindset's influence on well-being, with a deeper dive into health, fitness, nutrition, and aging. Through an in-depth exploration of the mind/body connection, placebo/nocebo effects, positive psychology, and longevity, students will engage in discussions, real-world examples, and practical exercises. Participants will learn strategies to shift their mindset and apply research-backed techniques to enhance overall well-being. No prerequisite required

31) Mindset Matters in Well-Being: Introduction

Thurs, 7/17 • 1pm-4pm • $15

1 Meeting • Verde Campus - Bldg. G-106 • OV-131-SU25

Facilitators: Donna Forsythe, Isabelle Griffith

Mindset significantly influences our well-being. Beliefs and expectations often determine physical and physiological outcomes. Drawing on the latest scientific research, we discuss the powerful role of mindset on outcomes in health, nutrition, fitness, and aging. Topics include the mind/body connection, placebo/nocebo effects, positive psychology, and longevity. Students will gain an understanding of these concepts and learn how to apply them to positively influence their well-being.

NATURE & THE OUTDOORS, ACTIVE MIND & BODY – Take a hike in Prescott!

50) Hike The Prescott Circle Trail

Mon, 6/9-7/14 • 7am-10am • $35

6 Meetings • Prescott Offsite • OP-150-SU25

Facilitators: John Pillman, Ken Paris

The PCT is a roughly 56 mile trail that encircles Prescott. It is divided into 11 segments ranging from 3-9+ miles each. This term we will be hiking the final 5 segments ranging from 4.5 to 8 miles and do contain elevation changes and challenges. Participants should have a history of good health and hiking in higher elevations. We will be hiking at a moderate pace of about 2.5 mph with frequent breaks. Meeting places will be different every week and sites will be emailed to participants each week. Carpooling will also be necessary each week as these are all one way hikes..

52) Prescott Area Nature Walks

Tues, 6/10-7/22 • 8am-10am • $35

6 Meetings • Prescott Offsite • OP-152-SU25

Facilitator: John Mangimeli

This class is a series of nature walks to understand and appreciate the wide variety of natural environments in the Prescott area. This is NOT a hiking group. Walks will be short (one mile maximum) and casually paced, with frequent stops to view and learn about what we see. Each week we will explore a different environment: Ponderosa Pine forest; Pinyon-Juniper forest; desert shrubland; riparian areas and lakes; and we'll learn about the flora, fauna, and natural processes of each environment. Sorry, no dogs. Meet at the OLLI Office to carpool to locations. Note: no class 7/1.

53) Strenuous Hiking - Prescott

Tues, 6/10-7/22 • 7am-11am • $35

5 Meetings • Prescott Offsite • OP-153-SU25

Facilitator: Elle Roy

Are you a seasoned hiker who would like to take advantage of our beautiful location and wonderful trail system? We'll be hiking 6-8.5 miles with 500-1800 ft elevation gain on rocky, uneven terrain that is sometimes steep. We'll hike at a moderate pace, with infrequent breaks, for 2.5-3.5 hours. For the enjoyment and safety of all involved, moderate hiking experience at this elevation and pace is required. Hike locations will be emailed to you weekly. Helpful gear: water bladder, hiking poles. Note: no class 6/17

55) Moderate Hiking - Prescott

Wed, 6/11-7/16 • 7am-9:30am • $35

6 Meetings • Prescott Offsite • OP-155-SU25

Facilitators: Lynn Neakrans, Mark Troester

Join us on moderate hikes of up to 5 miles on rocky and sometimes steep terrain and experience the beauty and diversity of some of the many trails in our area. You will need to be in good physical condition and accustomed to hiking at higher elevations and temperatures. A description of the hike and directions to the trailhead will be emailed to participants before each hike.

PHILOSOPHY & RELIGION & UNEXPLAINED

56) Introduction to Advaita Vedanta

Mon, 6/9-7/14 • 2pm-3:30pm • $35

6 Meetings • Online • OZP-156-SU25

Facilitator: Deborah Freeman

Rather than relying on blind faith in scriptures as Western religions do, the Hindu philosophy of Advaita Vedanta unfolds the existence and nature of God through scriptural teachings. These teachings are extensively supported by the use of reason and rational discourse. Following traditionally trained Swami Tadatmananda's comprehensive videos, we'll explore how Advaita Vedanta impacts our understanding of the material world. Note: class will meet on 6/30 and 7/7.

57) Tao Te Ching: Ancient Wisdom for Living Today

Wed, 6/25 • 1pm-4pm • $15

1 Meeting • Sedona Center-29 • OS-157-SU25

Facilitators: Charles Blum, Jean Ford, Jahnay Pickett

Tao Te Ching: What is the Tao (the Way)? What is wu wei (unforced, flowing action)? How does one align in today's world with this ancient wisdom? What guidance does it provide for living with integrity, simplicity, and humility? What guidance does it provide for those in positions of power to make progress without struggle? Join three old friends as they share lessons they've learned from various interpretations of the Tao Te Ching and read favorite verses. Open to all, regardless of previous experience with the Tao. Bring your own copy and share your insights, should you wish.

SCIENCE & MATH

60) Thinking Like a Cloud

Mon, 6/23 • 1pm-3pm • $15

1 Meeting • Sedona Center-28 • OS-160-SU25

Facilitator: Linden Sturgis

You will get to know the ten basic cloud types of modern meteorology as well as some other fascinating variants. You will hear how the clouds were named, what conditions give rise to them, and a little bit of what they tell us. Since clouds are always changing and transforming you will be challenged to develop a new kind of thinking that is as quick and flexible as the clouds themselves. I hope you will gain a new appreciation for clouds and maybe even for life itself!

62) Geologic History of the Verde Valley

Thurs, 6/26-7/24 • 10:30am-12pm • $35

4 Meetings • Verde Campus - Bldg.G-106 • OV-162-SU25

Facilitator: Steven Semken

The spectacular geological landscapes of the Verde Valley have a deep history that extends back billions of years, and which is recorded in the colorful rocks and landforms we find here. This non-technical course will recount the major events in the geologic history of the Verde Valley in the context of the geologic history of Arizona, and teach skills that will enable you to view and understand the landscapes and rocks the way a geologist does. Please note, class skips July 3 and resumes on July 10.

63) Geological Creation of Arizona and Verde Valley

Wed, 7/9-7/16 • 2pm-4pm • $35

2 Meetings • Sedona Center-28 • OS-163-SU25

Facilitator: John Sutton

This fascinating program will reveal how the land mass of Arizona was formed by island arcs attaching to a recently formed land mass. We'll examine the unique geologic processes that created Arizona's very large copper, gold, and silver deposits. Geologic changes of the Prescott and Verde Valley over time are revealed.

SELF-ENRICHMENT & LIFESTYLE

66) Quantum Medicine and the Biology of Well-Being

Tues, 6/24 • 1pm-4pm • $15

1 Meeting • Sedona Center-39 • OS-166-SU25

Facilitator: Gayle Swift

Explore the health benefits of Quantum Medicine where science, spirituality and creativity support the biology for well-being, vitality and resilience in the 5 domains of human life: physical, emotional, mental, spiritual and social. You will experience 6 core Care-of-Self micro-practices that are easily incorporated throughout the day, shifting from stress to creative engagement. The neurosciences are teaching us we can self-regulate our neurological-sensory system to create an Optimal Healing Environment [OHE] that directly impacts our gene expression for greater energy, joy, belonging, immunity and focused clarity.

67) Crystals In Action: Healing, Love & Living Energy

Wed, 6/25-7/23 • 10am-11:30am • $35

4 Meetings • Online • OZS-167-SU25

Facilitator: Darielle Archer

Step into the powerful world of crystals and energy grids in this transformative 4-week journey. Whether you're new to crystals or ready to deepen your practice, this course will show you how to use crystals intentionally—for healing, deepening relationships, and even supporting the energy of your plants and sacred spaces.

You'll learn how to create personalized crystal grids that amplify energy, restore balance, and align with your heart's desires. Together, we'll explore sacred geometry, crystal combinations, intuitive activation, and the wisdom of the natural world. Please note, this class will skip July 2 (to enjoy July 4th celebrations) and resume on July 9.

68) The Fine Art of Doing Nothing

Thurs, 6/26 • 10am-11:30am • $15

1 Meeting • Verde Campus - Bldg.I-138 • OV-168-SU25

Facilitator: Rick Rokosz

We are a culture of overachievers. We make things happen and happen fast.

If only there was a way to slow down just a little bit, to let us savor life's simplest moments. Well, there is, it's called DNA or the Do Nothing Approach. Professor Rick Rokosz, a certified, self-proclaimed do nothing profession will take you on enlightening journey and show you ways to reach life's simplest moments by using the DNA technique.

70) Beyond Stressed to Serene.:)))

Wed, 7/9 • 10am-12pm • $15

1 Meeting • Sedona Center-40 • OS-170-SU25

Facilitator: Leslie James

Life is FULL of never-ending challenges and set-backs. Our friend, the stress response, alerts us to those dangers and the need for action. However, stress hormones often linger past the task completion-leaving us feeling sick and tired. There are actually ways to manage those rocky roads without the negative impact of the lingering stress hormones. AND there are also ways to be freed in order to embrace AWE-to release positive hormones-and feel full of bliss and amazement-simply wonderful!!!

71) Beyond Ancestry.com

Thurs, 7/17-7/24 • 1pm-3pm • $35

2 Meetings • Verde Campus - Bldg.G-107 • OV-171-SU25

Facilitator: Helen Hayes

Ancestry research can be an incredibly absorbing activity ("Oh my gosh, did I just spend four hours on ancestry.com?"), but most of us want a good way to communicate what we find to others. This two-session class will begin with information from the instructor about options for presenting and preserving your research. The second session will consist of show and tell - participants will share their projects based on the discussion during the first session. NOTE: there is no ancestry software that the program will use or endorse.

WRITING, LITERATURE, & LANGUAGES

76) Keeping a Commonplace Book

Tues, 6/24 • 12pm-2:30pm • $15

1 Meeting • VOC Library-Javelina Room • OS-176-SU25

Facilitator: Kristine Crandall

Looking for a way to record quotes, anecdotes, book passages, observations — whatever comes up in daily life that inspires curiosity? Keeping a commonplace book may just be the ticket. It's a fascinating process for engaging with the world. Similar to a journal, it has its own specific origin and purposes. This course will explore benefits and ways of keeping a commonplace book, and the information you might compile, and includes practice using your commonplace book for writing projects.

77) 'En Plein Air' Poetry

Wed, 6/25-7/23 • 9am-10:30am • $35

4 Meetings • Sedona Center-29 • OS-177-SU25

Facilitator: Jahnay Pickett

We take to the out-of-doors (en plein air) to create our summer poetry. No history or counting of syllables, just fun as we take the class to favorite Sedona locales and create our poetry together--giving new meaning to Free Form Verse! Meeting "early" mornings (9am) for four (4) weeks only. Our first week we'll gather at the Sedona campus and there determine the sites for the 2nd, 3rd, & 4th sessions. Hopefully 9-10:30am will keep us out of the heat of the Sedona summer. Bring your notebooks! We will skip July 2nd meeting (in honor of July 4th) and resume on July 9th. Due to outdoor location, registration for this class will close on June 24.

78) Writing Your Memoirs

Thurs, 6/26-7/24 • 10:45am-12:15pm • $35

4 Meetings • Sedona Center-15 • OS-178-SU25

Facilitator: Anne Crosman

Organize your thoughts, photos, artwork, letters, diaries, and emails. We will write in class and at home - yes, homework. Bring paper, pen, and/or laptop. Your first chapter will be on your grandparents, second chapter on your parents, then chapters about your life divided into 15-year segments. Writing topics will be suggested, and your work edited. You may read your work aloud to the class, if you like. Please note class will skip July 3 and resume on July 10.
