Rebecca Jean Fenton and Jason Austin Laurence were wed Aug. 21 in an afternoon ceremony at the Three Swans Bed & Breakfast in Prescott, Ariz. Pastor Gary McMillan of Farmington, N.M., officiated the exchange of vows at the garden gazebo.

The former Miss Fenton is the daughter of Randall and Elaine Fenton of Prescott. Laurence, of Farmington, N.M., is the son of Gary and Julie Laurence of Willcox, Ariz.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore an ivory satin gown from Elegant Brides of Prescott Valley, Ariz. The gown, with a halter neckline, was embellished with beaded appliques at the bodice and insert of the A-line skirt. It featured a champagne colored sash and a chapel train. The bride's short vintage-style veil was adorned with ivory feathers and flowers. She wore an heirloom diamond necklace and carried her mother's handkerchief, both of which were passed down from her great-grandmothers.

Her bouquet, which she made, was of orange calla lilies, red wisteria, leafy twigs and greenery.

Maid of Honor was Amanda Fenton, sister of the bride. She wore a sage green dress with a halter neckline, gathered sash and full skirt. She carried a bouquet of orange calla lilies.

The groom wore a black tuxedo with a sage green vest and striped tie. His boutonniere, which was made by the bride, was an orange rose with a sprig of red wisteria.

Serving as Best Man was Phillip Efird, friend of the groom, of Farmington.

Serving as ushers were the bride's brothers, Kyle Fenton and Joel Fenton.

Honored guests in attendance included the grandparents of the bride, Clyde and Dora Thompson, of Prescott Valley. Unable to attend were Helen Fenton, grandmother of the bride, of Ashtabula, Ohio, and J.D. and Patricia Stevenson, grandparents of the groom, of Willcox, Ariz. Both parents and grandparents of the bride and groom were presented with corsages and boutonnières made by the bride.

Flower maids Emma Fenton and Savannah Laurence, sisters of the bride and groom, preceded the bride by sprinkling red and orange rose petals down the aisle, and then showered the wedded couple with petals upon their pronouncement.

After the reception, the couple took a honeymoon trip to Utah visiting Bryce and Zion Canyons.
