

Allie Ollie Summer Internship

This outrageously fun chain of boutiques began popping up all over Northern Arizona in 2009 and continues to look for expansion opportunities. While sales and demand continue to grow, the company is seeking outside input further growth and development. The goal of the internship is to develop and implement weekly staff meetings, employee incentive programs, employee reviews, employee training programs, and oversee general daily employee responsibilities. The Allie Ollie boutiques offer an extremely fun, upbeat environment that must remain the highest priority at all times. Applicants should have an understanding of a sales environment and awareness of customer relations and sales.
