

Instructional Formats

Yavapai College delivers instruction utilizing various formats.

Instructional Format	Definition
Activity-based	Physical activity and participation are incorporated into the class.
Classroom-based	Traditional classroom delivery.
Computer-based	Regular use of a computer is required.
Directed Study	Provides students with a way to complete a required class when no other alternative exists. Directed study is an individualized method of delivery for approved college courses and is allowed only when approved by the supervising dean. See your academic advisor.
Field Trip-based	Off-campus field trip is a substantial, required component of the class.
Independent Study	Supervised special project undertaken with the direction of an assigned faculty member. Includes specific, mandatory requirements. See your academic advisor.
Individually paced	Individually paced instruction.
Interactive Television	Interactive instruction between YC campuses delivered through closed-circuit TV cameras, screens and microphones. Students are able to interact as if they were in the same classroom.
Internet/Web-based	Instruction via internet. May have optional on-campus orientation meeting.
Internship	Structured field experiences within specific academic disciplines or technical areas. Enable students to apply knowledge gained in the classroom while refining technical skills and gaining relevant workplace experience. See your academic advisor.
Open-Entry/Closed-Exit	Proficiency-based instruction where students work at their own pace. Students may register at various times and must complete classes by an established deadline.
Open-Entry/Open-Exit	Proficiency-based instruction where students work at their own pace. Students may register and complete at various times.
Private lesson	Individually scheduled classes, typically music.
ROTC	ROTC (Reserve Officers' Training Corps) through Embry Riddle Aeronautical University.
Web/Classroom	Instruction via internet; attendance at in-person meetings is required.

Revised: 10-11-10