Dear Friends,

Plans are underway for the fourth annual "Art, Wine & Dine in the Verde Countryside" hosted by the Yavapai College Foundation's Greater Verde Valley Chapter. Please join us in sponsoring this exciting event.

This year's gala will be held Friday, October 18, 2013 under the college's outdoor pavilion on the Verde Valley Campus. The evening will begin with a Tasting Reception highlighting wines from our local region. Guests will then be seated to experience an epicurean adventure featuring three courses paired with wines presented by featured local vintners Corey Turnbull of Burning Tree Cellars, Eric Glomski of Page Springs Cellars and John Scarbrough of Cellar Dwellers Wine Company.

Featured Arizona winemakers:
Corey Turnbull, Eric Glomski and John Scarbrough

Thanks to community support, our annual fundraiser has been the "ticket to have" in the Verde Valley with the event selling out early. Please choose one of the attached sponsorship levels. For more information or to reserve your sponsorship, please contact Kim Flores, Foundation Coordinator at kim.flores@yc.edu or 928.776.2025.

Again, thank you for generous support enabling the Yavapai College Foundation to impact students and families who want to stay and learn in their hometown communities.

Sincerely,

Joy Inman
President, Greater Verde Valley Chapter

The Founders Wall

Your legacy, Set in Copper & Stone

Special recognition for gifts of $5,000 or more.

We are glad to recognize your Magnum and Gold Medal sponsorship by including you on the Founders Wall.

Vintage and Vintner sponsorship levels can apply their gift toward a Founders Wall Pledge.

The Founders Wall will serve to recognize those special donors who share in the vision that together we can build on the area's rich farming heritage to create a vibrant new wine-producing region.

Purposefully positioned outside the building that houses the new teaching winery, the wall will greet visitors and stand as a tangible reminder of the central role that these founding donors and their philanthropy played in establishing the Southwest Wine Center at Yavapai College.

The names to be engraved on the Founders Wall will include individuals, families, foundations and corporations. Their philanthropy will reflect all types of giving, from support for students, faculty, programs and research to funding capital projects and deans' and directors' priorities.
