

Yavapai COLLEGE

2017

YC PROMISE

If you obtained a GED in 2016 or 2017, then you may qualify to receive free tuition for spring semester 2018.

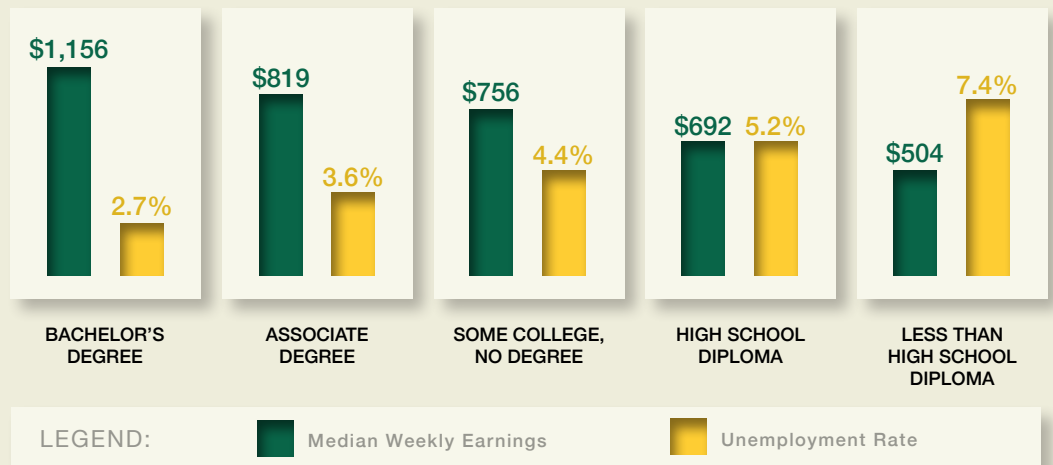

We promise that you won't pay any tuition or general fees if you meet the criteria and enroll for the spring semester.

LEARN MORE, EARN MORE

The greater your level of education, the more money you make, and the more likely it is that you've secured employment.

UNEMPLOYMENT RATES AND EARNINGS BY EDUCATIONAL ATTAINMENT, 2016

Source: Bureau of Labor Statistics, Current Population Survey "Career Outlook: More Education: Lower Unemployment, Higher Earnings" April 2017. Data are for individuals age 25 and older. Earnings are for full-time wage and salary workers.

Yavapai
COLLEGE

IS THIS FOR YOU?

The YC Promise program is available to all Yavapai County residents who earned a GED in 2016 or 2017 and meet Arizona state residency requirements.

YC Promise will cover the cost of tuition and fees. We will help you find the scholarships and grants for which you qualify. You will still need to pay for other college expenses, such as books, supplies, testing fees, etc.

TERMS & CONDITIONS

- Complete and submit the online form at www.yc.edu/promiseform
- Meet with Transitions Coordinator Mark Frederick (928-717-7907 or mark.frederick@yc.edu)
- Apply for financial aid by completing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) by December 18, 2017. We will help you – just reach out to us at 928-717-7907
- Meet with an academic advisor prior to enrolling so that we can help you select the right courses to help you achieve your goals
- Register for six or more credits that are required for a certificate or degree
- Aviation and Gunsmithing majors and courses are not eligible for this program

