Special Interest Groups

A SIG by any other name

So, is a SIG a Special Interest Group or a Social Interest Group? Which ever you may call them, they support our OLLI mission to encourage socialization, while expanding your horizons. These groups are just meant to be fun. SIGS are free for all current OLLI members.

Book Club, Ginger Carlson, ganddcarlson@cableone.net

- September book: The Great Silence by Juliet Nicolson
- October book: The Kitchen House by Kathleen Grissom

Wine Tasting, Hal Freedman, halft@cableone.net, (928) 445-5643

Chess, Tom Green, tagreen@owu.edu, (928) 778-1111

Are you interested in playing chess? The OLLI Chess SIG meets on Thursdays at 3pm in the Yavapai College cafeteria when OLLI is in session.

Zentangle, Kathy Dudek, mamadude@aol.com, (928) 771-96643

The Exploration of Consciousness, David Steeves, dsg@centurylink.net, (320) 217-4316

Sight SIG, Susan Gerhart, slger123@gmail.com

Social Bridge, Doug Adams, ret2az09g@gmail.com, meets Tuesdays, 3-6 pm at the Pronghorn Ranch Clubhouse in PV.

Poetry, Donna Meyer, d2meyer@cableone.net

---

How to Start a SIG

Got an idea, got a plan, got a thought, wanna start a SIG? It’s easy. Just contact Lydia, chair of the SIG Review Committee and we’ll help you get up and running. Her email is: lydgar33@gmail.com.

How about a SIG for any of these great fun ideas:
- An OLLI Newcomer’s club
- Plays, art and music events around Prescott as an OLLI group
- A horseback Riding SIG
- An OLLI bowling or golf league
- Gardening
- Or consider kayaking, photography, scrap booking, sports events outings, bridge, or any other great ideas