

Student Attestation for Professional Licensure Program Form

Yavapai College (YC) is committed to complying with federal regulations and demonstrating transparency to ensure that students are fully informed about how YC's professional licensure and State certification programs align with the licensing agencies in other states or territories. This form is for students who provided a location in a state other than Arizona or a state that does not meet licensure requirements.

Complete this Student Attestation form only if you have plans to seek licensure and employment in Arizona or another state where the educational requirements for licensure are met. If the attestation is not completed, you will not be allowed to enroll in courses for your designated program of study.
