Sedona ■ Verde Valley, Arizona

Lifelong learning is not a pastime...

it is a way of life that contributes to the well being of seasoned adults.

The Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at Yavapai College Sedona•Verde Valley is a vital resource made possible by dedicated members and the support of the Bernard Osher Foundation.

Our mission is to provide a wide range of college-level, non-credit lectures, short courses, and excursions for the intellectual and social cultivation of our members. We want to be around for generations of members to come.

A meaningful way to help ensure the Institute's longevity is to Leave a Legacy for Lifelong Learning. Making a planned or estate gift to OLLI helps ensure that it will be here for lifelong learners through the ages.

OLLI Sedona•Verde Valley Endowment Established

Thanks to the generous donations of John Black, Ken and Kay Bork, Lou Camp, Anthony Caetano, Anne Crosman, Denney and Mary Anne Fanter, George and Marj Haas, Julie Larson, and Shri Srikanth, we raised $10,000 to establish the OLLI Sedona•Verde Valley Endowment. Years from now, this fund will help us for rainy days like we are experiencing now with the pandemic and the stoppage of face-to-face learning.

Please consider funding the endowment. This growing reserve will keep OLLI financially healthy for years to come.

We thank those of you who have already provided for the Sedona•Verde Valley OLLI in your estate plans.
