

OLLI Code of Conduct

Many OLLI activities provide forums for lively and even passionate exchange of views. This is good as long as we follow principles of common courtesy. Opposing viewpoints should be respected and the dignity of others maintained at all times and in all locations. Personal attacks are unacceptable. OLLI members, instructors, staff, or guests who cannot adhere to these principles may be asked to leave the premises.

Approved: 05/21/19