

Welcome! We are between terms right now and we will have the list of speakers and topics for the Sedona Community Forum and/or the OLLI Brown Bag available shortly. If you have questions about the upcoming program, please reach out to the facilitators below.

The Sedona Community Forum, held at Yavapai College Sedona Center, features local community leaders involved in important, and innovative activities. They provide a behind-the-scenes look into their projects and organizations. They describe their work, challenges, and recent decisions, and their presentation is followed by audience discussion. Everyone is welcome to participate in this “town square” experience. This program is free and open to the public.

If you have questions about this program, please call Paul Friedman at 928.282.1541

The OLLI Brown Bag, at the Yavapai College Verde Valley Campus, is a free and open to the public series, where community leaders and OLLI premier facilitators will present topics covering local community issues as well as historical and scientific topics. Bring your lunch and enjoy the presentation and participate in the joy of learning.

If you would like to present at a future OLLI Brown Bag at the Yavapai College Verde Valley Campus, or if you have question about this program, please call Shri Srikanth at 972.768.5792
