

OUAZ Prepared to Welcome Students on Campus for Fall 2020 and Spring 2021 Semester

Both OUAZ campuses in Surprise and Phoenix plan to resume in-person education for the Fall 2020 semester with extensive measures in place to ensure the health and safety of our campus community, and the strength of the academic experience for our students. Guided by health experts, we are committed to caring for students and families in a responsible, flexible and Christ-centered way.

Explore and enroll in one of OUAZ's diverse number of undergraduate and graduate degree programs that will challenge your thinking, deepen your faith, and prepare you for a life of significance.
