

The Office of Residence Life

Fall residents taking a break from their online classes and getting to know one another as they socialize and socially distance on the beautiful Kachina hall lawn. The residents and RA's are committed to creating a sense of community while still practicing the YC Covid-19 Safety Protocols. You can, we can, together!

